www.safetyfest-boise.org.

TRADE SHOW: This is an opportunity for companies to come out and support Safety Fest, make connection with potential clients, to offer product demonstration and display samples. Vendors display Tuesday and Wednesday for $300 per booth space. No sales on site. Reserve your booth space with Lea.Duffin@idahosif.org.

OPENING SESSION: We have a great lineup this year including Safety's Competitive Advantage, stretching to prevent injury, and an update on key OSHA issues in Idaho. Our keynote speaker, Tim Creasey, a globally recognized leader in change management, will share his research, humor, and model in this interactive session to help you unlock the challenges of change so you can better navigate our changing world.

BROWN BAG LUNCH WITH OSHA: Grab a bite to eat in the SUB or pack your lunch and drop in anytime from 12-1 for an informal opportunity to meet some of the OSHA staff, get a quick update, and ask any burning OSHA questions. Lunch will not be provided.

HEALTHCARE TRACK: St. Luke's Health System is sponsoring a healthcare track of classes that run Wednesday and Thursday. The target audience includes, but is not limited to: Healthcare Organizations, Management, Clinicians, and Support Personnel. The track is split into seven courses over a two day period. You can sign up for all seven or pick and choose the courses you want to sign up for and attend.
